WELCOME to the FMVA Studio Crawl

We are delighted to be celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Fargo Moorhead Visual Artists' Studio Crawl, and we're looking forward to seeing you at the studios of our participating FMVA members around the area.

The Studio Crawl is an art-filled weekend like no other! Everyone is invited to explore the participating members' studios and witness the stimulation and allure of art. Take your time with the art and artists. We want you to be inspired and uplifted by the beauty of creativity.

In 2004, Fargo-Moorhead Visual Artists began with a mission to uplift and champion talented visual artists in the Fargo Moorhead area. We've come a long way since then, providing art opportunities for our regional artists, patrons, and enthusiasts. We are a multifaceted alliance of artists who organize exhibitions, professional development, critiques, visual talks, social gatherings and networking events.

The FMVA is a nonprofit fueled by the passion and dedication of our artist members. They form our board and work tirelessly in the areas of education, communications, membership, professional practices, and programming. Check us out at fmva.org.

The continued success of the Studio Crawl is a testament to the abundance of high-quality art in our community. We sincerely thank you for joining us and hope you have an absolutely uplifting time during the Studio Crawl!

Be sure to share photos and thoughts of your Studio Crawl experiences by using the hashtag #fmvastudiocrawl on social media. We and others would love to see what made an impression on you as you toured our members' studios.

Warm regards,

DANIEL R. JOHNSON

ART ADVOCATES' EXHIBITION

SEPTEMBER 23 – DECEMBER 17, 2023

Fargo Moorhead Visual Artists, North Dakota Arts Education Association and Plains Art Museum are coming together to promote and support our state and regional arts educators. This joint exhibition features the artwork of art educators and artists who directly interact in educating others in the visual arts. We recognize this special group of educators, instructors, and advocates who inspire new generations of artists and support their contributions to our communities.

We look forward to welcoming old friends and new visitors to celebrate my 30th year in business! I just completed his 10th National Park Artist-in-Residence at the SD Badlands concluding my decade-long "ConservationThrough Clay Series" focused on the archeological and geological study of human history and clay. Artwork ranges from miniature to wall pieces to large- scale vessels at all price points. I also feature my once-a-year seconds sale, refreshments, and wheel-throwing demonstrations by request. While here, look at the camper van renovated for the residencies, and say hi to the donkey and horses!

FMVA MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD

LISA BURNS

Congratulations to Lisa Burns, the Fargo Moorhead Visual Artist's Member of the Year.

Lisa is a water media artist who lives in rural Minnesota whose subject matter celebrates life in the upper Midwest. She grew up on a farm near Downer, MN, and often paints and exhibits the landscapes, florals and animals that were a significant part of her childhood.

Her award-winning work has been described as realistic/post-impressionistic and "having a calmness to it."

Lisa is inspired by the post-impressionist artists who painted and sketched the everyday lives of ordinary people, and she feels it is important to document the "common" and to connect with her audience.

Her primary mediums include watercolor, gouache, acrylic, watercolor pencil, and watercolor batik, and she prefers water-based mediums because they're more unpredictable. She says "you must free yourself from perfectionism and allow the paint to do the work!"

Lisa attended Moorhead State University and graduated in 1995 with a BS in accounting. Shortly after graduating she joined the USPS team and served for 25 years, retiring in 2021 as Supervisor Statistical Programs.

Lisa has served in board and officer positions for Fargo Moorhead Visual Artists (FMVA) and Red River Watercolor Society (RRWS) and holds current membership in Gallery 4, Red Door Art Gallery, Art of the Lakes (AOTL), Outdoor Painters of Minnesota (OPM), FMVA, and RRWS. She was a committee member of Arts for the Holidays and was instrumental in organizing the events in 2021 and 2022.

Thank you, Lisa, for your wonderful work and your tireless advocacy for the arts in our community. You make the world a calmer, and more beautiful place!
