WELCOME to the FMVA Studio Crawl

WELCOME to Our Annual FMVA Studio Crawl. Whether it's your first time or you're a veteran attendee, there's always something new to take away from this all-encompassing community art event. We encourage you to help celebrate and connect with our local artists by visiting them in their studios. Artists love questions! If you've ever been curious about the inspirational, technical, or creative processes that go into making art, the Studio Crawl is your opportunity to actively participate and learn. Art is much more than just the final product, and the Studio Crawl helps you to experience it. Paging through this brochure, you'll find a talented mix of emerging and established visual artists to visit this weekend, along with special events hosted by our supportive sponsors.

The FMVA is a nonprofit organization that continues to grow in providing art opportunities for our local and regional visual artists, patrons, art enthusiasts, and community—including exhibitions, professional development, critiques, visual talks, social events, and networking opportunities. Volunteers are a large part of our organization along with board members, technical support, and members who coordinate education, communications, membership, professional practices, and programming committees. These dedicated and generous individuals help FMVA support the arts, artists, and partner with the community to provide artists with a collective voice. Your participation in the Studio Crawl and other FMVA events lets us know our efforts are successful.

FMVA VISUAL ARTISTS EVENTS

LITTLE ART EXHIBITION

The FMVA Little Art Exhibition celebrates the idea that great art can come in small packages. Hosted by Essentia Health on South University in Fargo, the exhibition features original small-scale works by FM Visual Artists members in a wide variety of media, including painting, printmaking, photography, ceramics, fiber, jewelry, and mixed media. The intimate format encourages visitors to discover unique artwork while making original art accessible to new and experienced collectors alike.

BIG ART EXHIBITION

Hosted at West Acres Mall, the Big Art Exhibition reflects FMVA's mission to educate, encourage, and support visual artists while making art accessible to the entire community. By bringing high-quality artwork into one of the region's most visited public spaces, the exhibition introduces thousands of visitors to the vibrant local arts scene and demonstrates the important role artists play in enriching our communities.

ART ADVOCATES EXHIBITION

July 29 – October 5, 2026 • West Acres Mall
The Art Advocates Exhibition is a biennial exhibition celebrating the artwork of FM Visual Artists members who serve as educators, instructors, mentors, and advocates for the visual arts. Presented in partnership with the North Dakota Art Education Association (NDAEA) and hosted by West Acres Mall, the exhibition recognizes the individuals who dedicate their time and talents to inspiring creativity, encouraging artistic growth, and fostering an appreciation for the arts in classrooms, studios, community organizations, and beyond. By showcasing their own creative work, the exhibition highlights the powerful connection between teaching, advocacy, and artistic practice.

CONSTRAINT EXHIBITION

The FMVA Constraint Exhibition is a biennial exhibition that challenges artists to create new work within a shared creative constraint established by the FM Visual Artists Board of Directors. Whether the limitation is based on a theme, material, size, color palette, or creative process, the exhibition encourages artists to think beyond familiar approaches, experiment with new ideas, and discover innovative solutions through artistic problem-solving.

Presented in alternating years with the Art Advocates Exhibition, the Constraint Exhibition returns in 2027 with a brand-new challenge.

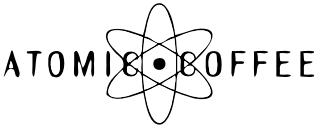

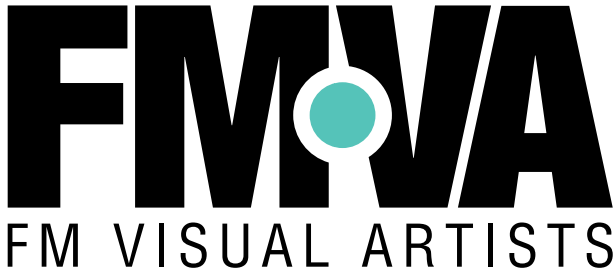

VISUAL TALKS LECTURE SERIES

The FMVA Visual Talks Lecture Series connects artists, art enthusiasts, and the community through engaging presentations by regional and visiting artists, educators, and arts professionals. Speakers share their creative processes, artistic influences, techniques, and professional experiences, offering audiences an inside look at the ideas and stories behind the artwork.

THANK YOU to our SPONSORS

It is through the community participation of these fine businesses and organizations that the Studio Crawl remains FREE to everyone.

You are invited to visit my studio and home-based gallery. See my creative process in designing and creating an effective work of art. You will be able to view and shop for original watercolors, acrylics, and mixed media collage paintings. I will provide sketching demonstrations. Invite family and friends to this memorable outing.

This is my forth year hosting visitors to my jewelry studio. Using silver, copper, brass and wood I've made something for everyone; stacker rings, steampunk pendants and earrings, Viking inspired bracelets and found art jewelry. See how I have taken objects from nature and cast them in silver. Demonstrations given throughout the day. Rings made while you wait. Talk with me about commissioning a one-of-a-kind piece or bring your own jewelry for repair or resizing.

I'm thrilled to be participating in the Studio Crawl for the first time this year and to welcome you into my home studio. I work primarily as an oil painter. My work is inspired by wildlife and nature, exploring the individuality of each subject through a blend of realism and abstraction. Using color, expression, and mark-making, I aim to create a sense of connection and appreciation for the natural world. I've been expanding my body of work and would love to welcome you into the studio and share my most recent projects.

FMVA MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD

DAWN MORGAN

The Fargo Moorhead Visual Artists is proud to recognize Dawn Morgan as our Member of the Year, honoring her extraordinary dedication to the arts and her lasting impact on our creative community.

Dawn has long been a champion of artists and the organizations that support them. Throughout her career, she has worked tirelessly to strengthen the cultural landscape of Fargo-Moorhead, helping artists find opportunities to create, exhibit, and thrive.

Among her many contributions, Dawn established The Spirit Room, a grassroots organization that began in 1997 with gallery exhibitions and literary events. Over the next 28 years, the nonprofit became a cornerstone of Fargo’s creative community—a welcoming place where people could gather for yoga, meditation, dance classes, visual art exhibitions, literary readings, and performances.

In 2004, Dawn became a founding board member of the FMVA. Her vision and leadership helped establish this essential advocate for regional artists, and today the organization continues that mission through exhibitions, educational opportunities, and the signature annual Studio Crawl, which each October opens artists’ studios to thousands of visitors from across the region.

What makes Dawn especially deserving of this recognition is her unwavering commitment to supporting others. She has been a trusted advocate, mentor, collaborator, and friend to artists at every stage of their careers. We thank her for the encouragement, thoughtful leadership, and generous spirit that has helped build relationships that strengthen the entire arts community.

Dawn understands that the arts are more than exhibitions and event. They are a way of bringing people together, fostering understanding, and enriching everyday life. Her belief in the value of the arts has inspired countless individuals, and her legacy will inspire artists and enrich the Fargo-Moorhead region for generations to come.
